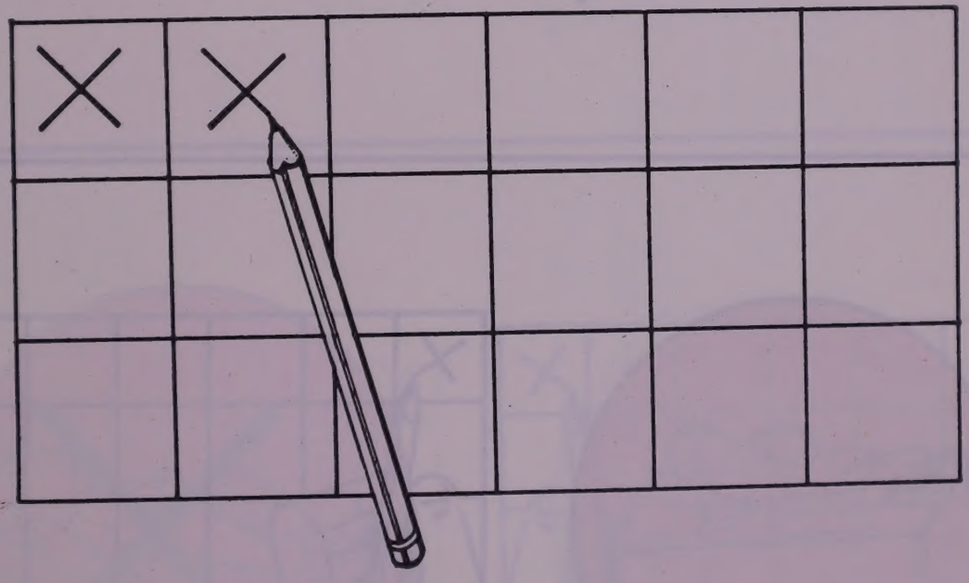
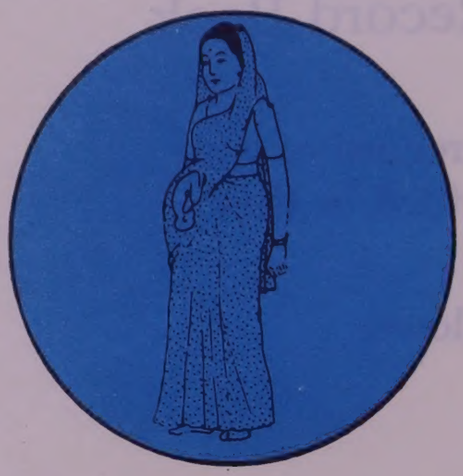
How to use this Record Book

You can keep a simple record of your work in the charts provided in this Record Book.

This can be done as follows:





Mark one X in a square
for every pregnant woman whom you attend to.

Mark one X in a square
for every delivery which you conduct.

Mark one X in a square
for every baby born alive.

Mark one X in a square
for every baby born dead or which dies after birth.

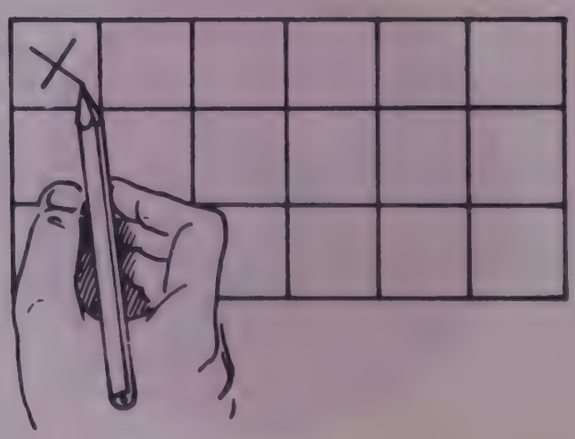
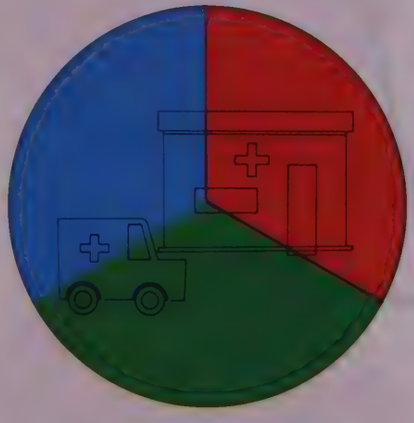
Mark one X in a square for every woman who dies during or after delivery.



Mark one X in a square for every woman whom you attend to after delivery.



Mark one X in a square for every woman sent by you to the Health Centre or shown by you to the Health Worker.

Show your Record Book to the Health Worker every time she visits your village.

The Health Worker will take down the information and sign your Record Book.

When you have filled in all the charts in your Record Book, the Health Worker will give you a new Record Book.
